enFocus Fellows Professional Development Evaluation
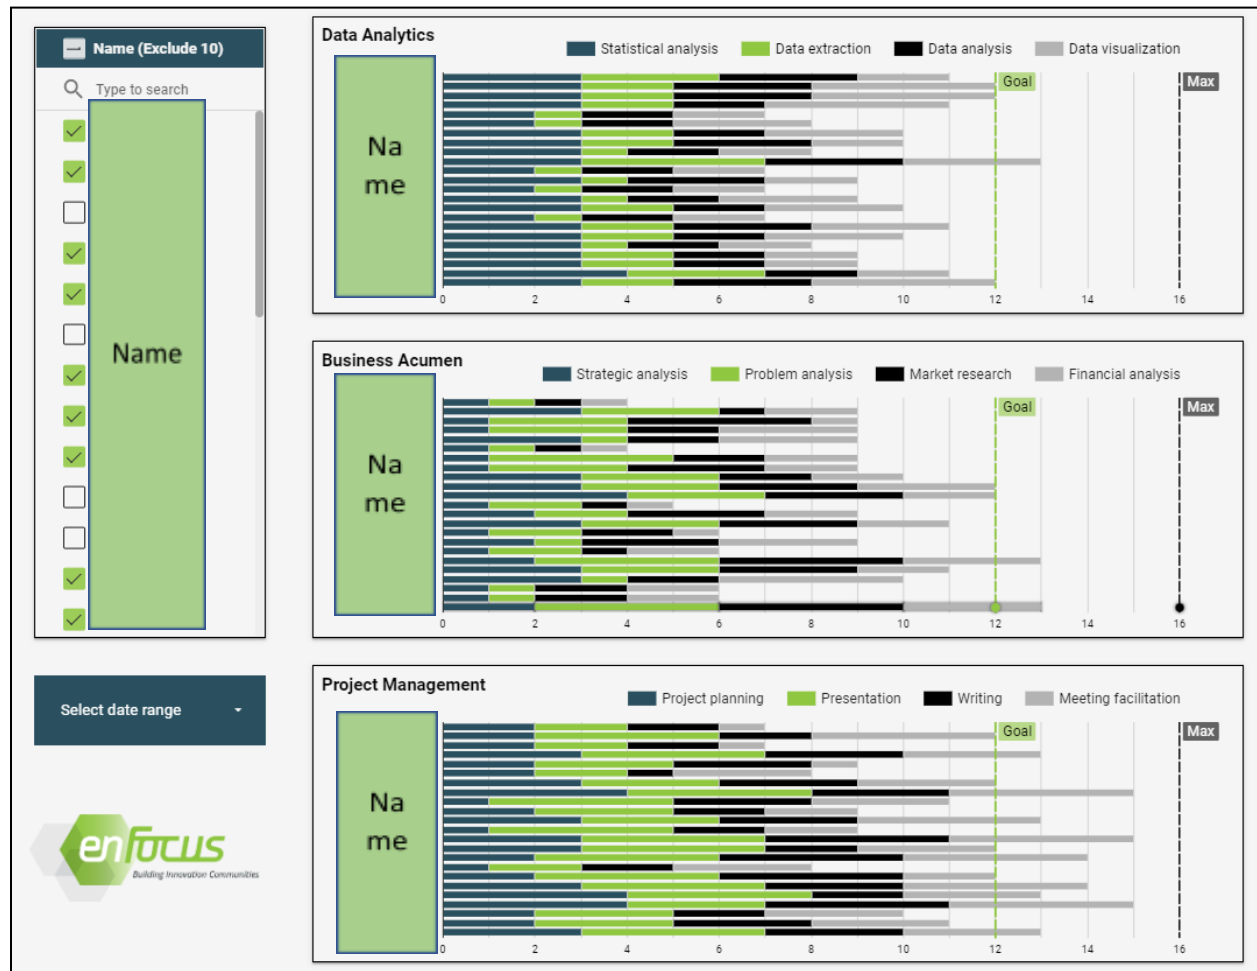

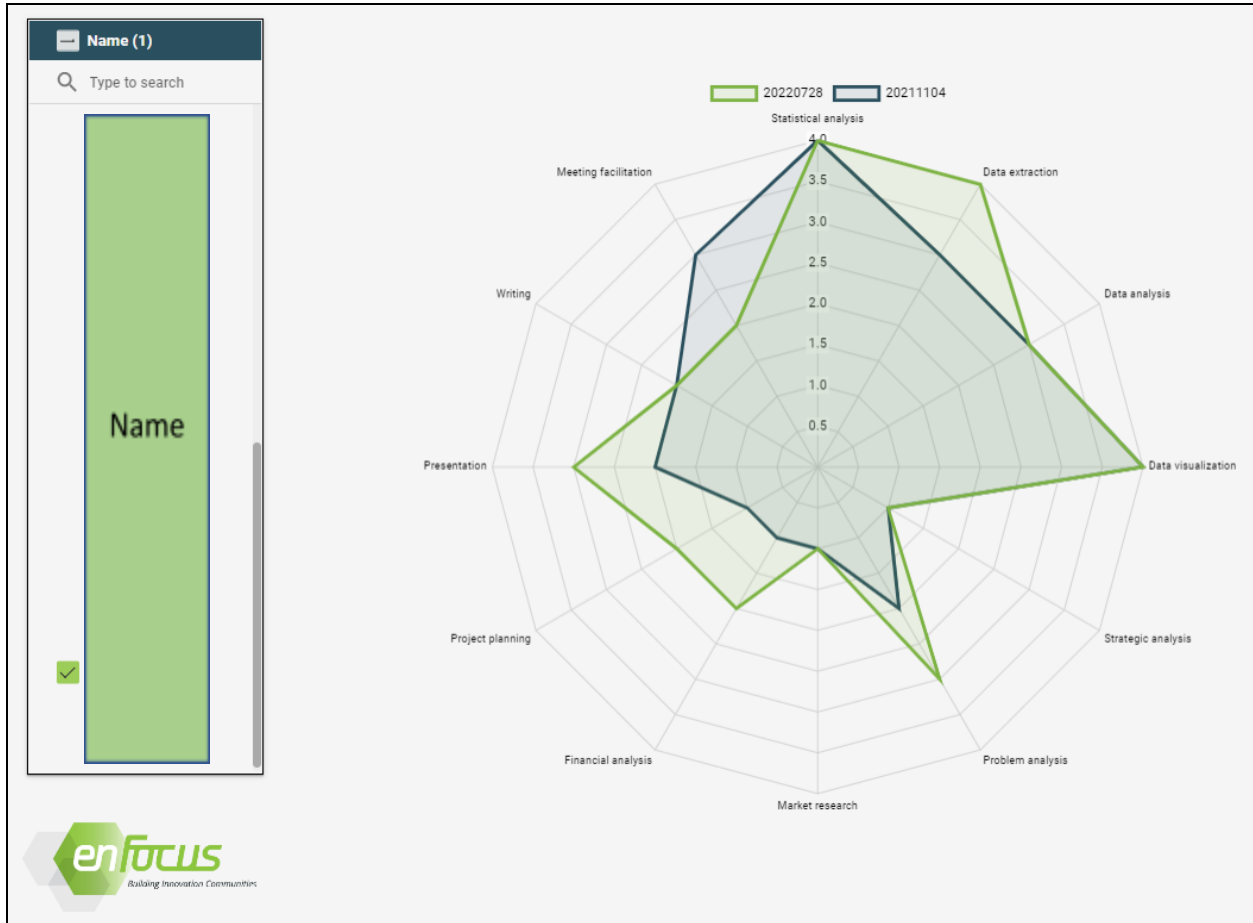

This dashboard offers an overview of enFocus employees' professional development progress. The first page provides visualizations of individual progress in three key areas: data analytics, business acumen, and project management. The second page showcases progress over time. The data source refreshes daily to maintain real-time data accuracy. The dashboard is used to customize professional development roadmap for each employee, aligning their growth with organizational objectives.